

A NEW GENERATION LAW FIRM

In 2011, Rindala Beydoun, a US qualified lawyer and longstanding legal practitioner both in the US and the Middle East, founded Tribonian Law Advisors (TLA), a boutique corporate law firm specialised in M&A, Corporate Finance and Restructuring – A law firm focus.

TLA has three offices in Dubai, Beirut and Riyadh (in association with Mothanna El-Gasseer Law Firm) to service clients requiring expert legal advice in various corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and partnerships, private equity and corporate reorganizations and restructurings. With a deep understanding of the dynamics of business in today's markets, TLA lawyers apply their expertise in the vibrant Middle East markets to service clients across a variety of industries and sectors. Since its inception in 2011, the firm has grown to twelve lawyers and has advised on a number of high-profile matters in the Middle East, including a USD3.5 billion restructuring in Kuwait and several large cross-border acquisitions and dispositions in the region as well as in Africa, Asia and Europe.

The firm aspires to become the leading regional corporate law firm, attracting top talent and continuing to work on high-profile and complicated transactions.

Beydoun commented, "Our partners are hands-on, commercially-oriented lawyers who are intimately involved in every transaction handled by the firm. They firmly believe that hard work, dedication and commitment lie at the heart of every successful firm." 📌

Chambers & Partners has ranked Rindala Beydoun among the leading lawyers in the UAE. Chambers stated that "Rindala receives widespread recognition for her adept handling of M&A deals. One client described her as 'extremely responsive, proficient and prolific, knowledgeable and smart'.

In 2014, TLA was recommended for Corporate and M&A in the United Arab Emirates and two of its partners were recommended as experts in their fields by The Legal 500 Europe, Middle East & Africa.
